Cambridge St. Community Public School

Recommendation(s) for resolution of issue: ***

Cambridge Street Community School was founded in 1898 to meet community needs and has been meeting those needs, as they have changed, ever since. It was the school for the deaf in the early part of the 20th century, was the school of a nascent Chinatown on Somerset St. in the 60's and it welcomed people from Vietnam in the 80's.

But now, Cambridge Street Community School has stopped serving its community. There are currently 10 children who are of primary school age or under on one small block of Cambridge. Of the 10, only three currently attend Cambridge. Why? French immersion.

Perhaps in the latter part of the 20th century it made sense to be English only, but in the 21st century the result is disadvantaging neighbourhood children and implicit streaming.

We are asking that Cambridge Street CPS becomes a dual-track school, by introducing Early French Immersion at Primary Division (1-3) to compliment the existing K-6 English Program and fully support Trustee Justine Bell's efforts to that end.
