Summary of issue/concern: *

Implementation of SROs are a blatant misuse of resource allocation. Completely inefficient use of funding with regard to the impact they will create. Ignoring the information that the board has been provided with and implementing SROs will only show the boards contempt towards the wellbeing of students. Officers will only increase the amount of punishment students receive and will only breed mistrust of the board and faculty.

Ignoring the delegation on this matter requires either extreme stupidity or actual animosity towards the students you claim to serve. Take your pick.

Recommendation(s) for resolution of issue: *

Remove SROs and don't look to the police for help. You want to help the students, try and get more funding from the government. Officers will not improve material conditions of students, teachers, the community. They won't improve grades, they won't make students happier, they won't make teachers happier, they won't make parents happier.
