Please provide a brief summary of main points for the issue/concern: *

Multiple transphobic candidates are running for school trustee positions across the Ottawa Carleton District School Board. If these candidates are elected, they may introduce discriminatory policies which would without a doubt harm the transgender, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming communities in these schools.

Recommendation(s) for resolution of issue: *

The easiest way to prevent these policies from being introduced and/or having any real effect is by putting protections in place for students belonging to the transgender, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming communities across the entire Ottawa Carleton District School Board.
