COMMITMENT TO INDIGENOUS RIGHTS, HUMAN RIGHTS, AND EQUITY

The Board recognizes its responsibility to ensure that this policy and associated procedures promote and protect Indigenous rights, human rights, and equity, The Board will strive to address and eliminate racism and structural and systemic barriers for students, staff, and the community.

1.0 OBJECTIVE-RATIONALE

To govern the appropriate use of information technology in the OCDSB Community.

2.0 DEFINITIONS

Please refer to Appendix A for a list of definitions of terms used in this policy.

3.0 GUIDING PRINCIPLES

3.1 The Board recognizes that the responsible use of Information Technology can:

- a) support learning;
- b) advance human rights, equity, and inclusion;
- c) promote staff and student development and well-being;
- d) support communication with OCDSB Community members; and
- e) advance other core administrative and operational functions of the District.

3.2 The District supports and encourages the responsible use of Information Technology through the following nine principles of Digital Citizenship:

- a) Digital Access: Equity of access is essential to the effective use of technology in the OCDSB Environment.

- b) Digital Commerce: Technology provides opportunities for Users to be fair and informed participants in commercial pursuits. Appropriate tools and safeguards should be used to facilitate any financial transactions in the digital space.
- c) Digital Communication: When engaging in digital communication, Users should consider the appropriateness of their chosen content and medium for a professional and/or educational setting.
- d) Digital Fluency: Users who are digitally fluent are able to effectively and ethically interpret information, discover meaning, design content, construct knowledge, and communicate ideas in a digitally connected world.
- e) Digital Etiquette: Users should be aware of how their technology use affects others, and be conscientious of time, method, and context when engaging with technology.
- f) Digital Law: Users are accountable for their own digital conduct, and must engage with technology in a legal, ethical, and respectful manner.
- g) Digital Rights and Responsibilities: All Users are afforded the same rights in a digital environment. Being provided with opportunities also means demonstrating ethical behaviour online and reporting potential problems.
- h) Digital Health and Well-being: Long-term technology use can have physical and psychological impacts which should guide the frequency and duration of use.
- i) Digital Security and Privacy: All users should understand how to safeguard sensitive or personal information while online for the protection of themselves and others.

3.3 The Board believes a positive and healthy digital work and learning space is supported by User adherence to this policy and the accompanying procedures.

4.0 SPECIFIC DIRECTIVES

Scope and Application

- 4.1 This policy applies to all Users while in the OCDSB Environment. Personal use of Information Technology is permitted as a privilege subject to the expectations of this policy.
- 4.2 All use of Information Technology shall support student learning and well-being and employee professional duties and development in compliance with all federal and provincial laws and regulations.

Responsibilities

- 4.3 All Users are responsible for:
 - a) ensuring that Information Technology is used in accordance with Board policies and procedures;

- b) using Information Technology in a responsible and ethical manner consistent with the purposes for which it is provided; and
 - c) reporting any and all potential security incidents and privacy breaches to the appropriate District staff.
- 4.4 Users who are Supervisors are responsible for supporting, instructing, and modeling the appropriate use of Information Technology, including the application of strategies to minimize expectations for the use of Information Technology outside of work hours.
