

How can ACE and the communities that many members represent engage with the strategic plan? 28 August 2020

 33 People  45 Thoughts  196 Ratings

Here are 20 thoughts that received the highest star ratings

Communication is always an issue - district needs to consider how to meet communities in their spaces

3.8 ★★★★★ (7 👤)
Ranked #1 of 20

Discuss practical ways to understand the strategic plan in concise laymans terms

3.8 ★★★★★ (7 👤)
Ranked #2 of 20

Open Data
Can we make equity data broadly available?

3.7 ★★★★★ (7 👤)
Ranked #3 of 20

Regular updates on progress of the strategic plan at ACE

3.7 ★★★★★ (7 👤)
Ranked #4 of 20

engage and consult during key moments

3.7 ★★★★★ (7 👤)
Ranked #5 of 20

not only identify and eliminate systemic barriers but also the barriers that exist

3.7 ★★★★★ (7 👤)
Ranked #6 of 20

Invite members to discuss the plan as early as possible
The early engaged, the more topics can be talked

3.7 ★★★★★ (6 👤)
Ranked #7 of 20

Make regular time to discuss how work aligns with strategic plan goals

3.6 ★★★★★ (7 👤)
Ranked #8 of 20

contribute ideas to the action plan

3.6 ★★★★★ (6 people)

Ranked #9 of 20

People need to feel heard in a responsive way

If we create the plan together, we are all empowered & invested in making it work.

3.6 ★★★★★ (5 people)

Ranked #10 of 20

Can provide strategic direction for budget

3.5 ★★★★★ (7 people)

Ranked #11 of 20

Make sure that more people are aware of the Strategic Plan

3.5 ★★★★★ (7 people)

Ranked #12 of 20

Participate in consultations

3.5 ★★★★★ (7 people)

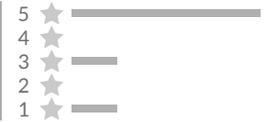

Ranked #13 of 20

By sharing knowledge and experience take advantage of different experiences

3.5 ★★★★★ (6 people)

Ranked #14 of 20

Caring is important, and I wonder whether that supports structural changes towards equity.

3.5 ★★★★★ (6 people)

Ranked #15 of 20

Consider outcome data and respond based on areas of need

3.5 ★★★★★ (6 people)

Ranked #16 of 20

During budget deliberation ACE can recommend resource allocations to address equity issues at the Board

3.5 ★★★★★ (6 people)

Ranked #17 of 20

Need examples of concrete ways that the board is working towards these goals

3.5 ★★★★★ (6 people)

Ranked #18 of 20

Social responsibility feels germane to the work of ACE.

3.5 ★★★★★ (6 👤)

Ranked #19 of 20

support the district in engaging diverse communities to ensure that the needs of students, parents and staff are included in decision making

3.5 ★★★★★ (6 👤)

Ranked #20 of 20

